"PANTHERS OF THE WEEK"

HOWARD MAHUGH

A reserve halfback on the 1956 Panther eleven, Howard Mahugh made his debut as a quarterback just a little over a month ago and immediately earned his spurs. In engineering Wenatchee's historic 18-6 win over Everett last week, Mahugh showed the polish of a seasoned high school quarterback. His brilliant ball-handling and rugged running was a factor in keeping the Everett defense off stride most of the evening.

DOUG BLACK

Fullback Doug Black is doubly valuable to the Panthers. Not only a key man as a ball carrier, Black also anchors the tough Wenatchee line on defense. He was a standout in both departments—drawing raves from the Everett observers, as well as from his coach—in Wenatchee's triumph over the Seagulls. Black also is a consistently accurate place-kicker on conversion attempts.
