

Prep football

Liberty Christian and Royal remained atop the polls in the latest Associated Press high school football rankings.

The Patriots earned seven first-place votes in the Class 1B poll, three more than defending state champ Neah Bay. Liberty Christian will face third-ranked Touchet today in the regular-season finale.

The Knights, who swept all 12 first-place votes in the Class 1A voting, are 21 votes ahead of Connell, which moved up to second after beating Zillah, previously ranked No. 2.

In the Class 2A ranks, Prosser came in at No. 5 after a 45-7 win over Selah. Kamiakin moved back into the Class 3A poll, sliding into the No. 10 position after a 44-14 win over Walla Walla.

In the Class 4A poll, Richland was the No. 6 team after completing an unbeaten Mid-Columbia Conference slate.

WASHINGTON PREP POLLS

Class 4A

1, Camas (9)	9-0	108
2, Lake Stevens (2)	9-0	96
3, Gig Harbor	9-0	88
4, Gonzaga Prep	9-0	82
5, Graham-Kapowsin	9-0	64
6, Richland	8-1	53
7, Skyline	8-1	46
8, Central Valley	7-2	31
9, Mountain View	7-2	13
10, Skyview	7-2	6

Others receiving 6 or more points: None.