

Pasco at Richland, 7 p.m.

It's Homecoming at Richland, something all coaches hate because of the distractions. Richland coach Mike Neidhold is wary of Pasco, which has had an up-and-down season. "Pasco has a few guys that can really run, and you have to keep an eye on Kolby Killoy," said Neidhold. "Don't forget he led the league in passing yards last season, so we know he can throw it around a bit."
