

PREP FOOTBALL

Richland defensive tackle Brigham Whitby, Hanford defensive lineman Brock Wellsfry and Kamiakin defensive back Darreon Moore—all seniors — were named to The Seattle Times' all-state team.

Whitby, the Mid-Columbia Conference's defensive player of the year, helped hold opponents to 11.6 points per game. Whitby also was named the MCC's offensive lineman of the year.

Of the 6-foot-6, 286-pound Wellsfry, Times writer Jayda Evans said: "(The) Oregon State commit is just as imposing offensively as he is defensively with his size and quick feet."

Moore, an all-MCC first-team pick at DB and wide receiver, helped the Braves win the Class 3A state title.

— TRI-CITY HERALD STAFF AND NEWS SERVICES