

Top teams fall, Richland rises in Seattle Times high school football power rankings

Originally published September 7, 2016 at 5:28 pm

Gonzaga's Anton Watson has the defender beat, but the underthrown ball gives Eastside Catholic's Andrew Pederson time to knock it down Friday. (Dean Rutz/The Seattle Times)

After the first week of games, here are The Seattle Times' Week 2 high school football rankings for Class 4A, 3A and 2A.

By Nathan Joyce

Seattle Times preps coordinator

The top of the 4A classification saw plenty of change in The Seattle Times state football rankings.

The top two teams from the preseason rankings, No. 1 Gonzaga Prep and No. 2 Skyline, lost their season openers last week and tumbled to No. 6 and 8, respectively. Gonzaga Prep lost to Class 3A No. 1 Eastside Catholic 21-7. Skyline fell at Richland, which moved up from No. 5 to No. 1, 38-27.

Gonzaga Prep and Skyline play a rematch of last year's Class 4A state championship game (won by the Bullpups 34-16) in Spokane on Friday.

The top of the Class 3A and 2A polls remained mostly unchanged.

Seattle Times Class 4A Preps Power Rankings

By Doug Drowley and Nathan Joyce

Rank	Team	Previous
1	 Richland Beat Skyline 38-27. Next: at Wenatchee	-
2	 Camas Beat Central Catholic (Ore.) 42-10. Next: vs. Shorewood, Oregon	-
3	 Graham-Kapowsin Beat South Kitsap 67-38. Next: at Curtis	-
4	 Sumner Beat Bonney Lake 34-14. Next: at South Kitsap	-
5	 Skyview Beat Sunset, Oregon 31-21. Next: vs. Eastside Catholic	-
6	 Gonzaga Prep Lost to Eastside Catholic 21-7. Next: vs. Skyline	-
7	 Bothell Beat Glacier Peak 44-29. Next: vs. Kentwood	-
8	 Skyline Lost to Richland 38-27. Next: at Gonzaga Prep	-
9	 Bellarmine Prep Beat Rogers 49-0. Next: vs. Lakes	-
10	 Lake Stevens Beat Stanwood 54-8. Next: vs. Arlington	-